FIRST 911 CALL MADE BY CINDY ANTHONY

In this phone call, Cindy was transferred to Orlando police.

Orlando Police Department: Hello.

Cindy Anthony: Hi, I drove to the Police Department here on Pershing [Avenue, in Orlando], but you guys are closed. I need to bring someone in to the Police Department. Can you tell me where I can -- the closest one I can come in to?

OPD: What are you trying to accomplish by bringing them to the station?

Cindy: I have a 22-year-old person that has, um, grand theft, sitting in my auto with me.

OPD: So the 22-year-old person stole something?

Cindy: Yes.

OPD: Is this a relative?

Cindy: Yes.

OPD: Where did they steal it from?

Cindy: Um, my car, and also money.

OPD: OK, is this your son?

Cindy: Daughter.

OPD: OK, so your daughter stole money from your car?

Cindy: No, my car was stolen. We've retrieved it today. We found out where it was at, and retrieved it. I've got that, and I've got affidavits for my banking account. I want to bring her in. I want to press charges.

OPD: Where -- where did all of this happen?

Cindy: Oh, it -- it's been happening.

OPD: I know, but I need to establish a jurisdiction, is what I'm trying --

Cindy: Oh, I live in -- um, in Orlando.

OPD: Yeah, but what address did these thefts occur at?

Cindy: Um, well I guess my residence, I guess.

OPD: What's that? OK.

Cindy Anthony gives the officer her address.

OPD: That's actually going to be in the jurisdiction of the Sheriff's Office, ma'am.

Cindy: OK.

OPD: Not the Orlando Police Department.

Cindy: All righty.

OPD: Let me transfer you over to the Communications section for Orange County.

Cindy: OK, now is the Orlando sheriff's department the one on 436, that -- is that open this afternoon or this evening?

OPD: Um, the substation you're at, on Pershing, if it's Orlando police, we're open primarily during the day.

Cindy: Uh-huh.

OPD: But that's not the sheriff's. That's a city police, which does not have jurisdiction for your address.

Cindy: Right. I know of the Sheriff's Department on 5th -- I mean on 436.

OPD: Well, what I'm going to do, is I'm going to transfer you to the Sheriff's Communications section, and you can, um, determine that. Hold on.

Cindy: OK.

The officer transfers the call.

Cindy: (speaking to Casey Anthony) Because my next thing will be down to child (inaudible) and we'll have a court order to get her. If that's what you want to play, then we'll do it, and you'll never

Casey Anthony: Well, that's not the way I want to (inaudible)

Cindy: Well, then you have --

Casey: Give me one more day.

Cindy: No, I'm not giving you another day. I've given you a month.
